“EVERYTHING ON PAPER WILL BE USED AGAINST ME”: QUANTIFYING KISSINGER

MICKI KAUFMAN
PhD Candidate in US History, CUNY Graduate Center, New York

Wednesday, October 12, 2016

A lecture on the computational analysis of the collected texts in the National Security Archive’s Kissinger Collection.

Sponsored by the DeBartolo Chair in Digital Humanities, the Department of English, the Department of History, and the USF Tampa Library.