About the Dean’s Student Leadership Society:
The Dean’s Student Leadership Society is a select group of students in the College of Arts and Sciences who have demonstrated outstanding achievement in academics and student leadership. These students represent the college at a variety of events, interacting frequently with USF administration, donors, alumni and the Tampa Bay community. The Dean’s Student Leadership Society aims to improve the college experience for all CAS students through innovative programs, as well as networking opportunities with CAS alumni. In addition, they serve as mentors to first-year students.
